

DDWG's Tracey Miles Receives Commander's Coin

By Stacy L. Umstead, DDC Command Affairs Office

Management Analyst for Defense Distribution Depot Warner Robins, GA (DDWG) Tracey Miles, was recently presented a Commander's Coin from Defense Distribution Center (DDC) Commander, Brigadier General Michael Lally, USA.

Miles was acknowledged for serving as DDWG's on-site point of contact for the recent joint DDC and Warner Robins Air Logistics Command (ALC) Change of Command and Retirement Ceremony. Miles was instrumental in the success of the joint ceremony coordinating all protocol with the ALC and providing guidance to all who assisted with the event.

In addition to her Management Analyst duties, Miles is also DDWG's Training Monitor and the Administrative Assistant to the Commander and Deputy Commander.

DDRV's New Green Team Makes the Competition See Red

By Jessica Walter, DDC Command Affairs

Defense Distribution Depot Richmond, VA's (DDRV) Green Team defeated the Richmond Elks 16-11 in the first softball game of the season.

"They're off to a great start!" said DDRV Director Jerri Taylor, smiling and visibly proud of her team.

"They do a wonderful job of working together both on the field and in the warehouse," she added.

Although winless during the basketball season, DDRV's Green Team is looking forward to showing their softball opponents what they've got.

"We have a great time no matter what, but it's definitely more fun when we win," said Penny Holcomb, DDRV Green Team coach.

It's outta here! Larry Haynes hits one out of the park for DDRV's Green Team.

Out! Guy Simmons defends the base.

Let's go Green! Fans cheer the team to victory.
