

DDPW's Rodman Named Employee of the Year

Commended for his outstanding achievements and contributions to the A-76 project at Defense Distribution Depot Puget Sound, Wash. (DDPW), Materials Handler Leader Stephen Rodman has been named as the DDPW Employee of the Year.

DDJC's Johnston Receives DLA's Meritorious Civilian Service Award

Defense Distribution Depot San Joaquin, CA (DDJC) Commander COL Edward Visker, USA, presented Ron Johnston DLA's second highest honorary award on March 2, 2004. Johnston received the DLA Meritorious Civilian Service Award for his efforts as chief of Transportation's Consolidation and Containerization Point (CCP) from 1999 to 2003.

DDSP Military Personnel Receive Service Awards

LT Adam Johnson, SC, USN, and CPT Delia McKelvey, USA, received Defense Meritorious Service Medals for their innovative contributions to the Defense Distribution Center (DDC), Defense Distribution Depot Susquehanna, PA (DDSP) and Operations Iraqi Freedom and Enduring Freedom. Joint Service Commendation Medals were presented to LT Clayton Roberson, SC, USN, and MSG Jaqueline Edwards, USA, in recognition of their outstanding commitment to the Warfighter by refining procedures at DDSP.

Engine Component Unit is Winner of DDOO's Traveling Safety Award – 1st Quarter 2004

Defense Distribution Center Oklahoma City, OK's (DDOO) Engine Component Unit earned the DDOO Traveling Safety Award in recognition for having no accidents or mishaps during the first quarter of FY04. Employees of the unit work with numerous types of power tools to include saws, drills, and hammers, along with the Materials Handling Equipment associated with performing their duties in construction, crating and movement of aircraft assets into the supply system.

*Mr. Faron Kessler
accepts DDOO
Traveling Award
on behalf of his employees.*

