

DCST Program Seeking Volunteers

Would you like to travel to the far reaches of the world?
And serve your country at the same time?
Then DCST may be right for you.

The DLA Contingency Support Team (DCST) Program provides logistical support to conflicts, natural disasters, emergencies, mobilizations and other contingency operations around the world.

Positions are open for distribution and supply specialists, transportation coordinators, logistics operations personnel processing, commodity specialists, communications officers, even Commanders.

DDC Civilians, Reservists, and Active Duty Military (both officers and enlisted personnel) are needed.

DCST is looking for volunteers for deployment throughout 2002 and beyond for positions in Germany, Bosnia, Croatia, Hungary and many other locations.

If you are interested in being a part of this exciting opportunity, contact the DDC Strategic Plans Office.

The DCST Program Manager can be reached at DSN 771-2805 or commercial 717-770-2805, or DSN 771-4114 or commercial 717-770-4114.

DCST volunteers are thoroughly trained in physical conditioning, first aid.

DCST team members often have interaction with the community they are supporting. Team members typically wear camouflage uniforms and local civilians believe they are all part of the United States military.
