
DDRT EMPLOYEES SAVE SICK LEAVE

Defense Distribution Depot Red River (DDRT) employees shown all have over 2,000 sick leave hours saved. They are: (l to r back row) Charles French, Danny McElwee, Charles Miller, Gaylon Tidwell, Charles Austin, Bobby Owens, Harry Allen, J. L. Jennings, Bobby Rowden, Leo Greene. Front Row—Norris Williams, Sharon Adams, Joe Potts, John Patton, Tommy Russell, Larry Scrivner, Marlin (Kirk) Zachry, Jr., Sammie Byars, and William O'Donnell.

Employees not shown include: Jimmy Skinner, Sandra Tidwell, Tommy Mills, William Henderson and Naurice Scudder. Division Chief Charles French has over 3,000. Total sick leave hours saved for this group is 57,274.25. A photo of each employee is displayed in the cafeteria area of the Distribution Operations Center (DOC) at DDRT. This is a "GREAT" accomplishment—DDRT employees. We are "VERY" proud of you!!

DDPW EMPLOYEE WINS SAFETY AWARD

The Office of the Assistant Secretary for Occupational Health and Safety announced October 26, 2000, that the Mt Rainier Chapter Federal Safety and Health Council has been selected as a Category III Notable Recognition Award winner for its excellent program during calendar year 1999 which advanced occupational safety and health programs. The Mt. Rainier Chapter is currently chaired by Ms. Virginia Aviles, an employee of the Defense Distribution Depot Puget Sound, WA. In addition to serving as chairperson, Ms. Aviles is Chief Union Steward at the depot, and serves on the depot Safety Committee. A plaque was presented to Ms. Aviles at the 55th Annual Federal Safety and Health training conference held November 27 in Rosemont, IL.

