

DDDC's Wong Headed to Iraq to Provide Customer Support

LT James Wong (center) is wished "fair winds and following seas" by the other members of Defense Distribution Depot San Diego, California's (DDDC) Continuing Government Activity as he departed on a four month tour of duty in Tikrit, Iraq, to serve as a Customer Support Representative for DLA's

Contingency Operations. As a member of the DCST, Wong will provide logistics support to the Warfighters in Iraq. If you are a DDC civilian or a military reservist or active duty member, and would like to volunteer for a Contingency Operation, call DSN 771-2805 or commercial 717-770-2805.

DDDC's Wong Sends Update from Iraq

LT James Wong, SC, USN (right) of Defense Distribution Depot San Diego, Calif. (DDDC), forecasted the outcome of the Army vs. Navy game with MAJ Kelly Sandifer, LSE, USA. LT Wong is serving as a Customer Support Representative for DLA's Contingency Operations and will be providing logistics support to the Warfighters in Iraq during his four-month tour.

If you are a DDC civilian or a military reservist or active duty member, and would like to volunteer for a Contingency Operation, call DSN 771-2805 or commercial 717-770-2805.

