

DDTP's Gaughan Recognized for Outstanding Support to USAF

Ed Gaughan, Defense Distribution Depot Tobyhanna, PA (DDTP) Supply Technician, Heavy Distribution Team, was recently acknowledged by the US Air Force Air Logistics Center Oklahoma City, OK for the outstanding support he provides to the Air Traffic Control and Landing Systems (ATCAL) Division.

Jeffrey Shepherd, ATCAL Program Director, presented Gaughan with a Letter of Appreciation during a recent trip to Tobyhanna Army Depot and DDTP. The letter cited Gaughan's eagerness to do whatever is necessary to assist the Air Logistics Center in providing status to requisitions and expeditiously processing Materiel Release Orders in support of MICAP requisitions and priority backorders. Customer service provided in conducting asset posture reviews and in providing timely and accurate shipping status to Air Force customers was also highlighted in the remarks made by Shepherd.

"Ed is an outstanding member of the DDTP team and he is deserving of this recognition," said LTC James P. O'Grady, USA, Commander, DDTP.
